When John Decided to Write a Gospel (Part 2)

Special Collection

Thank you to everyone who participated in the special collections the last two Sundays. We have a total of $31,335.50 to help with damages from the hurricanes. This congregation is always so generous and thoughtful when it comes to helping others and they will appreciate every cent as they have a long recovery ahead. Again,

THANK YOU
THANK YOU
THANK YOU!!!

God constantly desired fellowship with humanity. He plans to take on flesh and merge heaven and earth in the Incarnation (John 1:1–3, 14). This time, the divine humbles Himself to take on flesh (cf. Phil. 2:5–8). Humans have approached God through the temple for centuries, a sacred space designated where humanity and God met. Before this, it was the tabernacle, and when Jesus came in the flesh, He came to “dwell” (literally, “tabernacle”) among us (John 1:14). God steps out from the Holy of Holies to walk among humanity and redeem it.

God begins recreation. That is, He’s making all things new. Following the creation story, John shows that Jesus is God and created the heavens and earth. The earth was void and without form upon creation, and darkness reigned. This is the beginning of God’s creating a new temple without defilement. In Christ are the fullness of Temple, sacred space, and rest (cf. Matt. 11:28–30). Temple is no longer a building on a specific site but the person of Christ Himself (John 2:19–21). Jesus is redefining the Temple for us all because God placed man in His Temple Garden (Gen. 2:8), but now He who sets us notes that we have displaced ourselves. Therefore, He comes to us where we are.

God spoke light into existence in the first creation to illuminate His temple (Gen. 1:3–5). Living without light would be impossible. The sun and the moon, which give us light, also give us power, especially the sun. Today’s excellent discussion is to rely more on things solar-powered, but even forms of energy that are not solar-powered are powered by the nutrients the sun gives. How cold might Earth be without the sun? It would be uninhabitable, that’s for sure, to see a connection between light and life. You can’t have the latter without the former.

Now, the light of God has come to the world, and John the Baptist’s mission was to declare the light (John 1:6–9). The first day of recreation corresponds to the first day of creation: light. Jesus later said he was the Light (John 8:12; 12:46); we see Him mentioned as such throughout this gospel. Jesus asks that we all believe in the light for eternal life (John 12:36). The reconciliation process has begun (2 Cor. 5:18–19), and it takes the face of recreation in Jesus.

Library Wast & Wert

E. Bailey

On the matter of archaic words that we encounter in some of our hymns, one of Christianity's greatest hymns contains a couple of words that are almost unknown to 21st century English speakers.

Holy, Holy, Holy, (# 47 in our hymnal) written by Reginald Heber (1783-1826) and set to John Dykes's tune known universally as NICAENA, contains the old English words wast and wert in the final line of the second verse - depending upon the particular hymnal being used.

"Who wast, and art, and evermore shalt be."

"Who wert, and art, and evermore shalt be"

Most folks can figure out that the general idea is "who was and is" but these were originally German words that crept into the Anglo-Saxon Old English very early on. The Old English period is roughly from the 6th century to 1150AD.

Thank you to all the families that were able to be involved in Family retreat. The Lord provided us with amazing weather and plenty of opportunities for us to grow closer to one another while under the protection of his guidance. Memories were made that will last lifetimes. A special shout out goes to our cooks for the weekend, Ryan and Brittany Houston, David Ryan, Tim Stark, and Chad Milam. Thank you for your service in keeping our bellies full.

Fall Family Fun Night will be held here at the church building on October 26th. If the weather is nice, we will set up our trunk or treat outside and if it looks like it is going to rain then we will move festivities inside. There will be food and fun for all ages. I hope to see all of you there and encourage everyone to decorate their trunks in order to make the event that much more special for our little ones. There is a sign up list on the youth board for everyone to say if you will be doing a trunk as well as how many kids you will be bringing. The start time will be at 5:00. If you are providing a trunk please arrive by 4:30 in order to have your trunk ready to go by 5:00.

The Fall Retreat will take place at WKYC from November 8th - 10th. This event is for middle and high schoolers. Bob Palmer will be our speaker again this year and we are sure to learn more about each other and the Lord. Please be making plans to attend, it is truly a wonderful time.

We will be taking our highschoolers on a mission trip this summer to Honduras. More information will be released soon but if your child has any interesting in attending, they need to be obtaining their passport asap. An informational meeting will be held Sunday night after services for all those that are going or contemplating going. We have room for only a few more to join us on this trip, so if you have even the slightest inkling that you would like to join, I highly recommend you make the meeting.

YOU made my Birthday SO special with all of your wonderful greetings and messages! THANK YOU! I love you, and I miss you! It is such a blessing for me, to still get to worship with you, all three services, streaming live! When they show the audience, I get to see many of you, and it makes my heart sing! God bless you and yours, as only HE CAN!
